RichContactPro Going to GPL!

Hi Paulino paulino,

We have a great news today and you have to act fast to take advantage of it. We've switched the RichContactPro proprietary license to GPL license.

You can learn more about our new terms and conditions here.

Unlimited domains:

Now you can use RichContactPro on unlimited domains for only 79.95 USD!

The code is Open:

Going to GPL means that RichContactPro is not encrypted and you can view the code and customize it.

Business Model:

RichContactPro is now subscription-based GPL software. You should pay a subscription price to have access for updates and support during your membership period.

RichContactPro will still function properly at the end of the membership period.

For more detail about RichContactPro go here.
